MORE ON THE ARSON, PROSECUTION RESTS

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, March 18.—The interest of the public in the Cotter-Jennings arson case has not diminished in the least. The testimony of the third day's proceedings did not bring out anything sensational.
Bert Snyder was on the stand when our reporter closed yesterday. The witness was subjected to a most searching cross-examination and did not show up well. He denied that he wrote or saw the letter sent to Cotter in the attempt to extort money from Cotter. Lee told him he had written the letter which was introduced into evidence as one received by Holliman from Jennings and signed "E. J." At the suggestion of Mr. Warner the witness showed how he had addressed the letter to Jennings for Holliman. He wrote "Election Jennings, Levan, Utah," the E of the first name was turned around by the witness, resembling a figure 3. Witness was also instructed to write different sentences contained in the letter from dictation. The spelling of some of the words was different, but there was a resemblance between the writing of Snyder and the writing of the letter. The witness was asked if he had seen the letter after it had been received from Jennings by Holliman. It is the theory of the defense that Snyder wrote the letter for the purpose of frightening Cotter in the attempt to extort money from him.
Witness denied that he had been promised his freedom on the extortion charge by the officers if he testified right in this hearing. The officers had never said anything to him about it.
Judge Moon, after hearing the arguments, bound Jennings over to the District Court and discharged the defendant. Cotter Jennings was released under $1000 bonds.

OFFICERS TESTIFY.

M. H. Graham, deputy sheriff, testified as to the arrest of Cotter. Witness stated that when he placed Cotter under arrest and in answer to a question by Cotter as to what evidence the officers had against him, the witness said "Holliman has confessed everything." Cotter looked up and said, "Not everything," and seemed greatly agitated.
Sheriff Harmon testified that the first intimation he had of the prisoner's connection with the Lehi creamery fire was furnished through Mr. Cotter. Informing him of the attempt by Lee and Snyder to extort money from him.

COTTER'S LETTER.

The following letter was introduced by the defense into evidence to show Cotter's desire to bring the guilty parties to justice:
"Mr. Harmon, Sheriff, Provo—Dear Sir: I have some very important work for you to do. I am sure you will call and see me as soon as convenient. I had a letter, also a man call and saw me later, said he knew the man that set the Lehi creamery on fire, and he knew the party that hired him to do the job. Very truly,
E. J. Cotter."

THE SHARES OWNED.

Henry Lewis, secretary of the Lehi Creamery and Manufacturing company, testified that Cotter owned 524 shares of stock. The capital stock of the creamery was $600,000. The company received $200,000 insurance. Mr. Cotter's share was $30,400. Cotter had personal property in the creamery of the value of $200 to $300. After the fire witness saw the lock of the east door and it was in a broken condition.

WAS A CUSTOMER.

David J. Thurman of Lehi testified that he delivered milk to the Lehi creamery. The average quantity of milk daily was between 1200 and 1300 pounds. From May to October the creamery worked milked every day, other than the every other day. The witness testified that he called in Mr. Cotter's store one day and Cotter told him of the attempt to extort money from him by Lee and Snyder. Cotter told him the letter demanding money. Cotter told him that he had been before county officers. Had known Cotter for ten to fifteen years and his reputation was good. Had advised Cotter not to pay the two men a cent.

WHAT JENNINGS SAID.

J. H. Holliman was recalled and testified that Jennings, before the Lehi fire, told him Cotter was the man behind him in the job and for whom the creamery was burning. The witness testified that he went to Cotter for money and Cotter asked him if Jennings had paid him for the burning of the creamery. Witness said no, and that he needed money. Cotter then gave him $100. Witness believed at the time the money was paid him that it was for the burning of the creamery. When witness and Jennings were riding from Lehi to Provo, Jennings was riding in the front seat of the car and witness was in the back seat. Jennings said a man named "Cotter" was behind him. Holliman corrected him by saying "Jennings said, 'Oh, yes; that's right.'"
Felix Bachman, County Clerk, said that Cotter did not pay the taxes on the creamery, and after the fire the taxes on the improvements were remitted by the county.

MOTIONS BY DEFENSE.

Attorney Evan then entered a motion for the discharge of the defendant, J. E. Cotter, on the ground that there had been no legal evidence introduced outside of confessed accomplices connecting in any way Mr. Cotter with the offense. The prosecution opposed the motion on the ground that it was entirely out of order on account of the defendant Cotter putting in evidence for the defense establishing Cotter's good character. The question was argued by both sides and authorities submitted and objection of the prosecution sustained.
Mr. Warner then moved for the discharge of Jennings on the ground that there was no evidence introduced outside of the two confessed accomplices. The statutes provide for corroborative evidence to be introduced and Mr. Warner stated that not one bit of evidence was introduced in support of the motion was argued by both sides.

NOTES.

The following business has been transacted in Fourth District court: Estate of Thomas M. Hayward, deceased; petition of Lucila Hayward for summary judgment set for April 3, 1904; estate of George T. B. Peay, deceased; petition of Emily E. King praying for appointment as administratrix set for April 3, 1904; The Springfield Banking company has commenced suit against R. B. Thurman and Earl V. McCune to collect $300 on a promissory note dated June 12, 1903. The plaintiff asks for $34.00 and $25 attorney fees.
Judge J. A. Booth, District Attorney Hatch and Court Stenographer D. H. Roberts went to Vernal last evening for the purpose of holding a term of court in Utah county.

NEPHI MURDER CASE; MORE OF THE EVIDENCE

Special to The Tribune.
NEPHI, March 18.—The proceedings in the Peterson murder case opened today with the witness Ed Carlson on the stand, who testified in substance that on the night of the tragedy he was at the party and saw Herman Backman, a brother of the deceased, strike the defendant and engage in a controversy with him, that later on in the evening he saw the deceased come into the barroom, and when the defendant was doing nothing but an altercation with him, and saw the deceased strike the defendant, and a struggle ensued; that the defendant got away from the deceased, and as he was feeling the deceased threw a bottle at him and hit Annie Cronhof in the face and knocked her down and unconscious. He testified that the defendant left the barroom and returned within a few minutes with a shotgun, that immediately upon the defendant entering the room, Herman Backman, the deceased's brother, endeavored to take the gun away from the defendant, that in the struggle the gun was discharged, killing John Eastman, a bystander; that the defendant ran to a chair and started after the defendant, but did not know any of the subsequent events.

THE ARREST.

Con Hannifan, the nightwatchman, and Sheriff Cronin both testified to the arrest of the defendant. Cronin testified that he shot the deceased outside the hall, but claimed that the deceased was purchasing a shotgun and the blank shells and clothing of the deceased, John Eastman, a brother of the defendant, was killed. Cronin testified that after Allen returned to the Emerald today to continue the cross-examination of the defendant and the others not at Backman's house, and that they there told the deceased that the defendant had whipped Carlson, and they complained to the deceased about it, claiming that the defendant, if he was a member of the hall, had right to interfere with anybody in the barroom. This seemed to enrage the deceased, and he immediately returned to the barroom and began a controversy with the defendant, which resulted in his death. Several witnesses testified upon minor matters. It is expected that the State will close its testimony tomorrow, and that on Monday the defense will commence the introduction of evidence on the part of the defendant.

GAMBLERS BARRED OUT; ST. PATRICK'S DAY HONORS

Special to The Tribune.
SCOTFIELD, Utah, March 18.—"Tin horns" not allowed in Clear Creek. The big burly guard, with a pleasant countenance (that's the description of the man) was in Scotfield today, and when he learned that a couple of knights of the green cloth were here and were arranging to go to Clear Creek as soon as they had cleared up everything, he put them out of Clear Creek. If any one wants to come to Clear Creek to benefit the people they are welcome, but the knights of the green cloth can't come. You bet your life they can't come.
There are all kinds of Irishmen in Scotfield today. One fireman is named Irish, but for fear people won't know him he is performing on the street. The guard, who is a Scotchman, is in the street, and he is a very good one. In one group were seen a "colored" Irishman, a "Dago" Irishman, a Finnish Irishman, and several English, Welsh and American Irishmen. By the honors shown it seems very evident that for a fact "St. Patrick" was a gentleman.

The Knights of Pythias are flourishing in Scotfield. Hardly a week passes but without some candidates are initiated. Tonight six men will be given their first degree, and every one of them is a man worthy of fellowship in the great order. Their names are R. H. Warren, D. B. Thomas, John Barnard, E. P. Works, John Toth and F. E. Barker.

ORE VALUES ARE SHOWN; PERSONALS AT MODENA

Special to The Tribune.
MODENA, Utah, March 18.—There were several specimens of ore received here yesterday from the main ledge in the Pioche (Nev.) consolidated company's property, which showed remarkably fine values in lead and silver and smaller values in copper and gold. The shaft, under the superintendency of C. E. Rives, is rapidly going down, and the values are getting better. The ledge is so large that it completely fills and passes the walls of the shaft. Former reports covering this property had been very misleading, and the outlook that now appears to the owners.

NOTES FROM EUREKA.

Special to The Tribune.
EUREKA, March 18.—Alma Chase of this place had her foot amputated, this morning by Dr. Taylor. The young man has been in a very critical condition for some time and it may be necessary to remove the leg in order that his life may be saved.
The funeral services over the remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. B. Cronin were conducted here yesterday. Interment taking place in the City cemetery. The child's death was due to pneumonia.
Everything is now in readiness for the Elks' minstrel show, which will be put on at the hall on the 21st and 22nd—next Monday and Tuesday.
J. H. Gustafson has purchased the interest of James McCune in the Bank Saloon.
The local office of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company will soon be moved into Taylor Bros' building on 3rd and Main street. Mr. O. W. Ranshaw states that some other improvements will be made in the local service, but that the company has decided to delay the erection of a building at this place until some future date.

DOINGS AT PAYSON.

Special to The Tribune.
PAYSON, March 18.—Mrs. John H. Dixon, wife of ex-Mayor, died Wednesday evening. She was in Charles Dixon's store at the time she died. Her death was immediately carried to her home, which was only a block distant. Medical aid was quickly obtained and everything possible done for her. She is in a very serious condition now, but is improving slowly.
The energetic citizens of our city have been doing considerable work the last few days on the Presbyterian school lot in leveling it up and making it a more commodious and better condition. The laborers are doing their work and are deserving of credit for their work.

EMERALD ASSAYS SHOW UP WELL

Special to The Tribune.
PARK CITY, March 18.—George Wanning secured an assay from samples of rock brought over from the Emerald crosscut yesterday, which indicates that the vein contains an important ore body. The material assayed comes from the country rock near the ledge, where galena is coming in in increasing quantities, as the vein is neared, and shows in value lead, 15 per cent; silver, 10 ounces, and gold, 1 1/2. The owners of the property are elated over the occurrence in this unexpected connection of values. The crosscut is in but twenty or thirty feet and will tap the ledge, which is still some distance away, at a depth of forty feet. The ledge of ore in country rock, while not new for the Elkhorn district, certainly, in the eyes of most people acquainted with the country, denotes an unusual degree of expected connection of values. "DRAGGY" FEELING==MALARIA==BAD BLOOD

"I Would Get Up in the Morning Feeling Dull and Tired-- Would be Tired All Day--I Am Cured"--by the Celebrated Nerve Vitalizer and Tonic.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

"I Have a Good Night's Rest--I Wake Up Refreshed--I Am Cheerful All Day Long--I Do My Work Faster and Better."

The gentle but unfailing regulating power of Paine's Celery Compound does away with "that disheartened feeling" which sets its mark upon the faces and lives of so many unhappy women.
Thousands of women whose bright eyes, clear complexion, buoyant spirits and unfailing health are the envy of others owe their pure, strong blood and fine vitality solely to the little morning doses of Paine's Celery Compound, the celebrated Nerve Vitalizer and Tonic, which gives the whole system strength to do its work in a healthful way.
It keeps them "always at their best."

Miss Arlington's Letter.

"I suffered with chills and fever and my skin was growing very yellow. The slightest draft would be enough to cause hot flushes or a quick chill. We thought it was malaria, but can never yet explain how I contracted it.
"I always had a draggy feeling, and would get up in the morning feeling dull and tired, and would be tired all day.
"I was advised by a relative to try Paine's Celery Compound, which had helped her wonderfully, and I had such a good night's rest and woke up so refreshed that I determined to continue it.
"I do not feel any more lassitude, and I am through my work with satisfaction and work faster and better. The chills and fever are completely cured. This is just the time of the year when I used to have them worst, and I have not had a single chill. My complexion is better, and I can recommend Paine's Celery Compound as a gradual and thorough cure for malaria."—Miss Edna Arlington, Newcastle, Neb.
